Schedule 1 - Compliance with Standard 4 Explained

Education agents are an important part of the international education sector in Australia and an important part of Sydney Centre for Finance Studies trading as Decode College's business.

To ensure we remain compliant Standard 4 of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018, we must ensure that our education agents act ethically, honestly and in the best interest of overseas students. To do so, we must:

- have a written agreement with each education agent we engage with;
- enter and maintain education agent details in Provider Registration and International Student Management System (PRISMS);
- ensure education agents have appropriate knowledge and understanding of the Australian International Education and Training Agent Code of Ethics;
- · ensure education agents act honestly and in good faith;
- take immediate corrective action, or terminate a relationship if an agent (or an employee or subcontractor) is not complying with the National Code; and
- not accept overseas students from an education agent if we know or suspect that the education agent is engaging in unethical recruitment processes.

What processes do we take to ensure our agents comply with the National Code?

We require all our agents to have completed the Education Agents Training Course (EATC) available through www.pieronline.org or similar accredited body. To ensure all our agents are certified, we request all agents provide a copy of their certification with when applying to become our agent.

If we become aware that an agent is not complying with the National Code or associated Australian laws, we reserve the right to take immediate corrective action.

Conflict of Interest

We take all reasonable steps to avoid conflicts of interest and reserve the right to take corrective action if we become aware of a conflict of interest. Agent conflict of interests include, but are not limited to:

- when the agent charges services fees to both overseas students and registered providers for the same service:
- where an education agent has a financial interest in a private education provider; or
- where an employee of an education agent has a personal relationship with an employee of the education provider.

More information

More information regarding agent responsibilities when representing us are contained in our Education Agent Policy and Procedure, available on our website: https://www.decode.nsw.edu.au/partners.
